

Southeastern Quilt and Textile Museum 2023 Year End Report

Summer Camp engaged 36 youths with the help of 12 mentors.

The museum featured 10 exhibits.

We welcomed visitors from 38 states and 6 countries.

In 2024, the Southeastern Quilt and Textile Museum is focusing on storytelling to build community around the textile arts. As part of the celebration, the museum is featuring a series of powerful exhibits and programs to inspire understanding, diversity, healing, and creativity. We are starting off the year with the Sacred Threads Traveling Exhibit and Community Storytelling Series.

Storytelling acts as a thread stitching individuals together, creating a quilt of shared experiences, values, and aspirations.

As SQTM transitions into its next chapter we welcome our first full-time Executive Director, Amy Loch and Interim Board President, Melanie McClellan.

Amy Loch is an experienced museum professional who excels at building museum success through expanding programming, marketing and outreach efforts, increasing attendance, and strengthening funding stability. Amy is excited to bring her knowledge and experiences to SQTM.

Melanie McClellan is a retired higher education professional who enjoys using her talents in interim leadership roles, non-profit development, and career transition coaching. She has previously served on the board of SQTM and is looking forward to helping the organization prepare for their next chapter.
